

Scholarship Information for Graduate Students

Scholarship Websites

Alma Exley Scholarship Program

<http://www.almaexleyscholarship.org/>

American Council of Learned Societies (Fellowships & Grants)

<http://www.acls.org/>

AAUW – American Association of University Women (Fellowships & Grants)

<http://www.aauw.org>

Fulbright Scholarship

<http://www.iie.org/fulbright>

Hispanic Scholarship Fund

<http://www.hsf.net>

Latino & Puerto Rican Affairs Commission

<http://www.cga.ct.gov/lprac>

National Science Foundation

<http://www.nsf.gov>

Social Science Research Council Fellowship

<http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships>

Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation

<http://www.woodrow.org>

Search Websites

www.fastweb.com

www.careersandcolleges.com

www.salliemae.com

www.scholarshipamerica.org

www.scholarships.com

www.collegeboard.com

www.studentscholarshipsearch.com

www.scholarshippoints.com

www.financialaidfinder.com

Beware of Scams!

- Beware of companies that promise to save you thousands of dollars in tuition by assisting you with your financial aid forms.
- You should never have to pay for scholarship information.
- Don't be fooled by a company that asks you for money to "hold" a scholarship.
- To learn more about protecting yourself from scholarship scams visit the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) website: www.ftc.gov/scholarshipscams

Please read each website's privacy and information sharing policy before providing any personal information. This is not an inclusive list, just some suggestions. Please be aware Saint Joseph College has no control over the websites listed and that the sites may change at any time.